

Please do not weaken New Jersey's Consumer Protections by overturning our Do Not Call laws. Solicitation calls can seriously erode the quality of our families' lives, and we cannot afford to burden our families any more than they already are. We must allow home to be a safe haven from the pervasiveness of advertising.